
Orientation Days

The Orientation Day is a compulsory day at the beginning of the semester. It provides you with useful information to give you the best possible exchange period in Prague. You will be given information on study-related topics, practical issues as well as general information about living in Prague. In addition to all the useful information, you will also get acquainted with your fellow students!

The Orientation Day takes place a week before the start of each academic semester.

The dates for this academic year 2019-2020 is:

- Winter semester: 30th September 2019
Individual appointments are possible after a previous arrangement by email.
- Summer semester: 17th February 2020, 10.00
Individual appointments are possible after a previous arrangement by email.

We strongly advise you to participate in order to get a good start of your academic year at the Catholic Theological Faculty and also because it is the best opportunity to ask all the questions that may arise during your first days at our faculty.

During the registration on Orientation Days you will need:

- 1 passport size photo
- your ID card/passport
