

The Porto Summer School on Cinematic Art will take place from June 18-23, in Porto, Portugal. It will gather six artists (Apichatpong Weerasethakul, Filipa César, João Pedro Rodrigues and João Rui Guerra da Mata, João Salaviza, Salomé Lamas) and six curators & scholars (Guilherme Blanc, Haden Guest, Isabel Capelo Gil, João Ribas, Sabeth Buchmann, Teresa Cruz) for hands-on exercises, masterclasses and screenings.

Check the e-flyer here: <https://goo.gl/PEzcqQ>

The deadline for application is May 26 (selected participants will be notified on May 30).

To apply, follow the link: <https://goo.gl/bk5sUD>

Any inquiry, please write to summerschool.arts@porto.ucp.pt

The Porto Summer School on Cinematic Art presents itself as a state-of-the-art week with the participation of renowned artists and filmmakers working on contemporary cinema and/or contemporary art. Its main goal is to gather, in the city of Porto, and during a week, a privileged 15 participants with artists, filmmakers and critics, scholars and curators. The course will provide conceptual resources of contemporary creation, in particular with the use of digital cinema resources for capturing images and sounds, and for exhibition models in exhibition spaces.

Programme

Every day, the participants will work closely with one artist in specific hands-on exercises. In the afternoon, there will be a conference with a scholar; and, at night, a screening of a film by each artist. Each day will take place in various cultural spaces of the city and the region (Serralves, Oliva Creative Factory).

The Porto Summer School on Cinematic Art will include the opening of two exhibitions: Salomé Lamas at the School of Arts (June 18th); and Apichatpong Weerasethakul's The Serenity of Madness, at Núcleo de Arte Oliva Creative Factory (June 22nd). The Summer School will end in the Summer Solstice, on June 23rd, when Porto city celebrates an all-night party for "São João" (Saint John's Day).

How to enrol

You should fill out the application form, available at <https://goo.gl/bk5sUD>.

The selected participants will be chosen by May 30th.

Number of participants: 15

Cost: 1500,00 € (meals & accommodation are included June 17th - 24th). Discounts for School of Arts' students are available.

The Summer School will be done in partnership with: Serralves Foundation; Núcleo de Arte Oliva Creative Factory; Porto's City Council; Porto/Post/Doc.