

Dear Colleagues,

We are excited to announce a scholarship opportunity for students and graduates who are interested in the cultural heritage of Hungary. May we kindly ask you to share this opportunity with others. Attached please find the Call and the Preliminary program.

With the help of a scholarship offered by Tempus Public Foundation, higher education students and graduates can attend ‘The Cultural Heritage of Hungary’ summer course, held at the University of Pécs between June 30 – July 14, 2019, free of charge.

The objective of the very enjoyable summer program is to introduce the Hungarian cultural heritage from many different perspectives. Participants learn about the history and the current political, economic and societal challenges of Hungary. They will also gain insight into the Hungarian classical and folk music, the gastronomy and the wine culture of the country. The language of instruction is English.

The scholarship covers full tuition, field trips, meals, accommodation and various social activities for the duration of the program (visit to Orfű Aquapark, wine-tasting tour in Villány, Quiz Night etc).

Who can apply?

The University of Pécs, the oldest university in Hungary, was founded in 1367. Today it is one of the largest Institutions of Higher Education in the country and specializes in a wide spectrum of courses to some 20,000 students in approximately 500 different study programs. The University of Pécs provides a truly international learning environment; we are proud to host more than 4,000 international students each year, who come from 110 countries across the globe.

Pécs is one of the most beautiful central European cities with a rich culture dating back to the Roman Empire. It is the European Capital of Culture of 2010 – a safe, Mediterranean UniverCity, full of pubs, cafés and restaurants.
