Acta Universitatis Carolinae Theologica

Acta Universitatis Carolinae – Theologica is a peer-reviewed journal published twice a year. Being open to all theological disciplines as well as to transdisciplinary research, it provides a critical forum for both Czech and international academic discussion. Apart from Czech, contributions are published in English, German, French, Italian and Slovak. Current and past issues are available in our open access archive. AUC Theologica welcomes all authors within the specialization of theology to publish the results of their research here.
